To Whom It May Concern,

I am honored to write this letter of recommendation for Louis Rosche, an exceptional educator and colleague. I have had the privilege of working alongside them at Truman Middle School, and I can confidently say that they are one of the most creative, energetic, and dedicated professionals I have ever met.

I have had the privilege to work with Louis on the Equity Committee and in a teaching capacity. Since Louis and I started working together, their passion for education and commitment to student success have been evident. They bring an innovative approach to the classroom, constantly developing engaging lessons that inspire curiosity and a love of learning. Their creativity knows no bounds, whether through interactive projects or unique problem-solving strategies.

Beyond their talent as an educator, Louis is a true team player. They collaborate seamlessly with colleagues, always ready to share ideas, support others, and contribute to a positive and inclusive work environment. Their energy and enthusiasm uplift those around them, making our workplace productive and enjoyable.

Most importantly, Louis is adored by students. They build strong, meaningful relationships with every learner, ensuring each student feels valued, heard, and empowered. Their classroom is a place where students thrive, not only academically but personally. Louis goes above and beyond to support their students, such as helping a new student from Vietnam build friendships when she was struggling socially and assisting another student from Afghanistan in understanding science concepts, even though he faces challenges with English. Their dedication to fostering a welcoming and supportive environment makes a lasting impact on every student they teach.

I wholeheartedly recommend Louis for any opportunity that comes their way. Organizations would be incredibly fortunate to have such a hardworking, innovative, and compassionate team member. Please feel free to contact me if you need any additional information.

Sincerely,
Holly Gleich
